J. Napor - by Mr. Sieminski

been the attorney that took something, copied, whatever. Maybe they brought them back.

Whatever it was I remember there was a heck of a lot more than we seem to have now. Those should be around someplace, perhaps with his ex-attorney. I don't think any of them are germane to the case.

MR. REILLY: Let me make a statement. I think Jack has related to you what he and I were talking a bit over lunch about, the documents that Mr. Herklotz sought or his counsel sought previously, and they seem to be more voluminous than the box that I have been able to gather together to bring here which took me three or more trips to WRS to get. We walked through the facility and pulled out of different places the documents that are here, so I think we have what is germane to the cause, but Jack just thought there might be more documents.

THE WITNESS: Everything that is germane to the case, invoices and statements and so forth, but you were asking a lot about production and production records and keeping

EXHIBIT 23